

Bastille Day is the national holiday of France celebrated every year on July 14th. It began in 1789 when people marched to a giant prison called the Bastille to fight for their freedom. Today, families celebrate with big parades, music, and colorful fireworks in the sky!

BASTILLE DAY