

NAME: _____

DATE: _____

SUBJECTS AND PREDICATES

Subject: The part that tells who or what the sentence is about.

Predicate: The part that tells what the subject is or does.

Example: The dog barked at the cat.

Underline the Subject with Red. Underline the Predicate in Blue.

- 1) The delivery driver honked the horn twice.
- 2) My gym teacher set up the volleyball net.
- 3) A gentle breeze rustled through the maple leaves.
- 4) My dance teacher played classical music during class.
- 5) The gardener planted tulip bulbs in neat rows.
- 6) My new neighbor moved in last Saturday.
- 7) The veterinarian examined our sick hamster.
- 8) A majestic eagle soared high above the canyon.
- 9) My computer teacher showed us how to type.
- 10) My music teacher taught us a new rhythm.
- 11) A sleek black panther prowled through the jungle.
- 12) The carpenter built sturdy wooden shelves.